The cytopathology community is saddened by the recent loss of Dr. Brian Collins. His friends and colleagues miss his expertise, his company and his tireless efforts in medical education.

Dr. Collins was a father to five children, Virginia (Gini), Laura, John, Diana and Maria. The cytopathology community is coming together to raise funds for Dr. Collins’ children’s educational expenses. The funds are being accepted through a gofundme page assist.

https://www.gofundme.com/brian-collins-educational-fund

For additional information please contact Drs. Guliz Barkan, Daniel Kurtycz or Mary Schwartz.

Thank you.

JASC Physician In-Training Award

[342] Fluorescence In-Situ Hybridization of Thyroid Fine Needle Aspiration Biopsy Distinguishes Neoplastic and Non-Neoplastic Hurthle Cells

Scott Bibbey, MD
Washington University in St. Louis
St. Louis, Missouri

American Society of Cytopathology Companion Society Meeting

NEW FRONTIERS IN CYTOPATHOLOGY PRACTICE

7:30-10:30

Moderator
Rana Hoda, MD, FIAC, CIBLPath, Inc., New York, NY

Application of Cytological Techniques in Circulating Tumor Cell Specimens
Alarice Lowe, MD, Brigham and Women’s Hospital, Boston, MA

Primary HPV Testing in Cervical Cancer Screening
Jason Stone, MD, QML Pathology, Brisbane, Australia

Advances in Pancreaticobiliary Cytology
Martha B. Pitman, MD, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA

Ancillary Molecular Testing in Indeterminate Thyroid Nodules: How Far Have We Come?
William C. Faquin, MD, PhD, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA

Morphology and Molecular Testing in Non-Small Cell Carcinoma of Lung
William Travis, MD, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, New York, NY